be permitted in Salt Lake after 7 o'clock this evening.

Holding that, since the new law makes no reference to the hours during which the saloons shall be closed, and that the intent is only to esfeguard the casting of the vote, the provisions of the old law requiring the saloons to close during voting hours are adequate to the occasion, Mayor Park last night ordered Chief of Police B. F. Grant to keep the saloons closed only until the closing of the polis at 7 o'clock.

Last Saturday, Chief Grant informed the saloonkeepers that under the new law they would have to close for the estire day. Yesterday, County Attorney I. E. Willey informed the city commissioners that the county would not prosecute anyone arrested for selling liquor after the polls closed. The matter was considered at length by the commission at its executive session vescommission at its executive session ves-terday morning, but no decision was arrived at until last night at the regu-lar commission meeting, when Mavor Park, after a conference with the chief of police, suggested a compromise. The suggestion was concurred in and Chief Grant was ordered to observe the pro-visions of the old law.

Refuse to Surrender Anything of Value; More Refugees on Road to Utah.

Special to The Tribune.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 4 .- A number of colonists are arriving here from the colonies, being those who braved the danger of the rebels and returned after the first exodus. They say that con-ditions are more chaotic there than they have been at any time in the pastthey have been at any time in the past. The native Mexicans and the rebels who have tired of fighting and looting have settled down in the homes of the Mormons in the colonies and have stubbernly refused to surrender anything which belonged to the Marmons. When Enrique C. Bowman and other prominer for the colories of Prehistory and the past the p bet colonists of Dublan and Juarez at-tempted to save a little of their crops by loading wheat to be sent to Chi-huahua for sale, they were stopped by the natives who declared that as they had no crops that they would not allow the wheat to be sent out of the colon-ies for fear that they would starve this winter.

Threats were openly made against the settlers if they attempted to remove their property although several succeeded in getting small quantities of goods out.

T. M. Spilsberry, has finally obtained his release by promising to send his captors two sacks of sugar.

A number of the refugees who are arriving from Mexico are leaving Tuesday for the following places in Utah:

To Richfield, Utah—Agnes, Pratt, Julia, Marba, and Beth Thurber.

To Fairie, Utah—L. Ross, Tucker.

To Provo, Utah—J. H. Rowley, Emerald W. Stout.

Forecasts were made by representa-tives of the three big parties as fol-

Republican State Chairman Henry Gardner—The victory is won.
Republican County Chairman W. H. Folland—We will carry the county for the entire ticket by from 5000 to 7000 plurality. Our organization is in as good shape as it ever was and victory appears certain. I wish to take occasion to compilment the mannhers of the headquarters staff, who have worked hard for success. Among them are Secretary Dana T. Smith, in charge of the organization work: Frank R. Christensen, in charge of transportation, and Fred W. Price, director of the speaking bureau and in charge of our rallies. They all contributed largely to our success.

They all contributed largely to our success.

Dana T. Smith, secretary of the Republican county committee We will get between 18,000 and 13,000 votes in Salt Lake county, which means that every candidate on our ticket will be elected with a large plurality. Our organization is in perfect shape in every district.

Thurman Is Confident.

Thurman Is Confident.

Samuel R. Thurman, Democratic state chairman—From every indication that may be noted at present, there is every reason for the Democratic to look forward confidently to a Democratic victory in Utah. We believe that we will get a majority of the so-called doubtful vote of the state and will elect every man on our state ticket.

John E. Clark, secretary Democratic state committees—From reports and capvasses made in every precinct of the state, we are convinced beyond any question of a doubt that the entire Democratic state ticket will be elected and that the next legislature will be Democratic. We will carry Salt Lake, Weber, Utah, Cache, Sanpete, Sevier and Juab counties, as well as several smaller counties of the state. The Wilson wave that is sweeping the country has reached Utah and he will carry the state by a large plurality.

T. F. Thomas, Democratic county chairman—I have never been in doubt about the certaints of Democratic success in this county and every development has strengthened my original belief. A careful canvass of every block in every woting district in Salt Lake City and county gives us a plurality of the straight Domocratic votes in the country, without figuring at all on the doubtful vote. This doubtful vote, I am convinced, will be largely Democratic plurality in this county at not less than 2900 votes and it will probably be more.

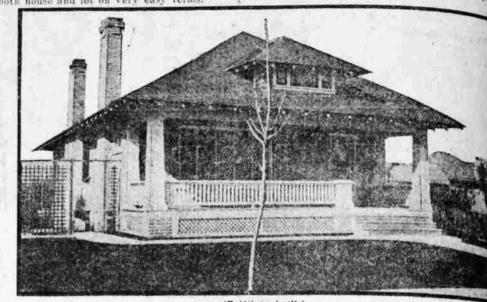

Progressive Predictions.

Wesley K. Walton. Progressive state chairman—It is hard to estimate to what extent the Rooseveit landslide will sweep Utah. The landslide will sweep Utah. The landslide is certain and Colonel Rooseveit will be elected president. In Utah, it has been impossible for us to organize in every county, or to make an active canvass in all sections of the state. However, we are assured of much support, even where we are unorganized. We will carry eight or ten of the larger counties of the state, including Sall Lake and Weber counties, and we will divide the legislature with the Democrats. The Rooseveit vote in Utah will prove astroughing. Wesley K. Walton, Progressive Jake H. Turner, chairman of the Progressive City committee The
